JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

POLITICAL POWER.

The discontent of the West has of late manifested itself by agitating the propriety of the removal of the Federal capital. We have heretofore given, at various times, the various forms under which this discontent is concealed. Tracing back this agitation, its progress may thus be marked. First there were given to the public learned disquisitions about the movement of population. This was followed by scientific discussion as to the centre of population of the Great Republic, and its relation to a geographical centre and the central point of accessibility or great railroad centre.—Following up this came the claims of several large Western cities, each one of which set forth its pretensions to be considered as the point which best satisfied the conditions requisite for the new era of the Great Republic. Saint Louis, Chicago, Cincinnati, Louisville, Columbus, and Toledo have each been brought forward, each as having preponderating merits. But it is quite evident that in popular estimation Chicago, St. Louis, Louisville, and Cincinnati were the only points which were entitled to the consideration of the great public. In the meanwhile the press discussed the unhealthiness and inaccessibility and other objections to Washington as the great Federal centre, and Western cities became active and enterprising to exteud their influence as railroad centres, and Congress to devise ways and to grant charters for railroads to and through Washington to do away with the force of this argument against the present seat of Government. The argument, however, progresses and now reaches the question of power, or, as the President of a municipal Ward Club would say, "to a count of noses to see what can be done." Under an assumption of unity in public sentiment at the West and with an air of quiet satisfaction and self-reliance, which the possession of power imparts, the Chicago Tribune thus exhibits the transfer of political power from the East to the West, adroitly holds up a picture which indicates, unmistakably to the Middle and New England States, that their hitherto dominant section must yield to Western demands unless it can effect a coalition with the South before 1870. The Tribune says:

In the reapportionment of representation in Congress, on the basis of the census of 1870, the census of political power will swing westward from somewhere in the neighborhood of Columbus, Ohio, to a point at, or near Lafayette, Indiana. The six New England States which, in 1840, had 38 Representatives, will, in 1870, have only 22, as follows:

1840.		1870.
Maine,	8	Maine,	4
New Hampshire,	5	New Hampshire	2
Vermont,	5	Vermont,	2
Massachusetts,	12	Massachusetts	9
Connecticut,	6	Connecticut,	4
Rhode Island,	2	Rhode Island,	1
Total,	38	Total,	23

The Northwestern States, which, in 1840, had 32, in 1870 will have 83, as follows:

1840.		1870.
Ohio,	19	Ohio,	19
Indiana,	7	Indiana,	11
Illinois,	3	Illinois,	16
Michigan,	1	Michigan,	7
Missouri,	2	Missouri,	11
		Iowa,	8
Total	32	Wisconsin,	7
		Minnesota,	3
		Kansas,	2
		Nebraska,	1
		Total	85

In estimating the increased political power of the West, we must add to these the Pacific States, which in 1840 were not, which now have only five members of Congress, but which, after 1870, will probably have seven or eight, making in all 92 or 93 members west of Pittsburg and north of Cairo. The change between the period named in the representative strength of New England and the other Eastern or Atlantic States combined will be substantially as follows:

1840		1870.
New York	40	New York	29
New Jersey	6	New Jersey	5
Pennsylvania	28	Pennsylvania	25
Delaware	1	Delaware	1
Maryland	6	Maryland	4
	18		64
Add N. England	38	Add N England	22
Total	119	Total	86

In any issue, therefore, in which the entire New England and Middle States, including Delaware and Maryland, might be arrayed on one side, and the Western and Pacific States on the other, the latter would prevail by a majority of seven votes. In any issue wherein Kentucky, Tennessee and the Southwestern States are united with the Western and Pacific, as for instance in the removal of the capital, the improvement of the Mississippi, the development of mining resources, the equitable national adjustment of taxation, and the like, the majority would be larger.—Chronicle and Sentinel.

A MODEL SCALAWAG.

The New Orleans Times publishes the following notice of General Alcorn, the Radical candidate for Governor of Mississippi:

Some years before the war, when Gen. Alcorn was a prosperous planter, thinking more of making the largest crops with the fewest hands, and of getting the most work at the smallest expense in the way of food and clothing for his "happy slaves," and of picking up the worse negroes at low rates, and by management and discipline making them "pay"—thinking more of these things than of the great affairs of Government and the great questions of constitutional construction, finance, &c., which now engage his profound study, the General was one day offered a great bargain in a chunk of a negro, whose only vice was an invincible, and, as Dr. Cartwright used to show, a natural and genital fugacity. In other words, the vendor would warrant said negro against all other vices but that of running away.

"Very well," said Alcorn, "I can cure him of that," and took the negro at the price asked.

"Now, Jim," said Alcorn to his fresh purchase, "go to work, and understand very clearly that if you run away I will chop off your right big toe for the first, and for the second the other big toe, and will also ——," here he named a most cruel and debasing mutilation which should supplement the penalty for the second offence.

Notwithstanding this caution, Jim, obeying his "inevitable destiny," in the Cartwright theory, did run away, was captured and brought up for punishment.

Alcorn faithfully kept this engagement. Jim's big toe was brought to the block, and he had to limp for some weeks behind the "hoe gang." As soon as he was well, and the amputated stump had cicatriced, Jim's inherited fugaciousness overcame him and he took to the swamps.

A well-trained pack of hounds, however, soon ran poor Jim to earth, and again he was bagged, brought home, and called up for punishment. Again Alcorn vindicated his faith and consistency by cutting off the left big toe of Jim, and then deliberately proceeded to execute the remainder of the horrible sentence.

This is the frightful story which is published and vouched for by responsible persons, one of whom is a respectable physician, personally and professionally cognizant of the facts. All this of a man who is put forward as the champion of the poor down-trodden African race.

DOTY'S WASHING MACHINE,

LATELY MUCH IMPROVED,

AND THE NEW

UNIVERSAL CLOTHES WRINGER.

Improved with ROWELL'S PATENT DOUBLE COGWHEELS, and the PATENT STOP, are now unquestionably far superior to any apparatus for washing clothes ever invented and will save their cost twice a year, by saving labor and clothes.

Those who have used them give testimony as follows:

"We like our machine much; could not be persuaded to do without it, and with the aid of Doty, we feel that we are masters of the position."—Rev. L. Scott, Bishop M. E. Church.

"It is worth one dollar a week in any family."—N. Y. Tribune.

"In the laundry of my house there is a perpetual thanksgiving on Mondays for the invention."—Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler.

"I heartily commend it to economists of time, money, and contentment."—Rev. Dr. Bellows.

"Every week has given it a stronger hold upon the affections of the inmates of the laundry."—N. Y. Observer.

"Friend Doty—Your last improvement of your Washing Machine is a complete success. I assure you 'our machine,' after a year's use, is thought more of to-day than ever, and would not be parted with under any circumstances."—Solon Robinson.

"Your Washing Machine has been in daily use in our laundry and the housekeeper expresses herself as highly pleased with it. It certainly accomplishes a greater amount of work, with less labor, and does not wear the clothes near so much as the old fashioned wash-board. By using it one laundress is dispensed with."—Wm. M. P. Rowad, Superintendent of Inland Department of St. Catherine's Nursery, N. Y. City.

PRICES.—A Fair Offer.

Send the retail price Washer $14, Extra Wringer $9, and we will forward either or both machines, free of freight, to places where no one is selling; and so sure are we they will be liked, that we agree to refund the money if any one wishes to return the machines, free of freight, after a month's trial, according to directions.

No husband, father or brother should permit the drudgery of washing with the hands, fifty-two days in the year, when it can be done better, more expeditiously, with less labor, and no injury to the garments, by a Doty Clothes Washer, and a Universal Wringer.

Canvassers with exclusive right of sale make money fast selling them.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1869.

PROSTITUTION OF THE CASWELL BENCH AND BAR.

We were, this week, at Caswell Court, Judge Tourgee, of Ohio, presiding. Hon. James T. Morehead, Judge Kerr, Hon. Samuel P. Hill, Gov. Graham, Gen. Scales, Col. Dillard, Col. Boyd, Montford McGhee, Col. Watt, Col. Winston, W. N. Mebane, of Rockingham, Capt. James Graham, of Alamance, Judge Ruffin, Jr., Col. Livingston Brown, Henry Jordan, of Person, George Thompson, Col. Wathers, Col. Winston and Wm. Totten, were the Attorneys in attendance on the Court.

The prostitution of the Caswell Bench and Bar calls aloud for speedy remedy. It is to be hoped that the Bar will take prompt action for the protection of itself. The Caswell Bar has been greatly lowered in public estimation, by the unworthy conduct of two of its members, to wit: Stevens and Leonard, the latter of whom tacks L. L. D. to his sign manual. These two men have brought signal disgrace upon an honorable profession.

The Bar can no longer look to the Bench for aid in the maintenance of its dignity and purity. The Bench has been aiding in the prostitution of the Bar, by the admission of base and unworthy men, as members. We speak now only of the Caswell Bar.

The oldest member of the Bar, Hon. James T. Morehead, lying on a sick bed, last Tuesday, gave us the history of the Caswell Bench and Bar, in the spring of 1823, near a half a century ago, when he first appeared at that Court. In the County Court, presided James Yancey, Asa Graves, John P. Harrison, Quennes Anderson and Benjamin C. West.

George Williamson was Sheriff, and none but intelligent free-holders were allowed to sit as jurors. Judge Murphy, Hon. Bartlett Yancey, Judge Sanders, Judge Settle, Hon. Bedford Brown, Chief Justice Ruffin, Chas. D. Dombo, John E. Lewis and John Scott, of Orange, composed the Bar. Judge Norwood rode the Circuit. The Bench, even in that day, had not upon it a more honest, high toned and chivalrous man.

It is incumbent upon the present members of the Bar of Caswell Court to preserve the purity which distinguished the administration of justice in that county when Norwood presided as Judge and Yancey, Murphy, Ruffin and Brown, were numbered among the Attorneys and officers of the Court.

In the case between the Bench and Bar, lately decided in the Supreme Court, Chief Justice Pearson says:

"Persons who apply for the exclusive privilege of Attorneys at Law, and the right to enjoy the emoluments of the dignified position of a "member of the Bar," are required to produce satisfactory testimonials of good moral character, and thereupon the law tacitly annexes a condition whereby this exclusive priviledge is forfeited after bad conduct; and it is not only the right, but the duty of the courts, to enforce the forfeiture. Suppose an Attorney of a Court is tried and convicted of "forgery," and the day after enduring infamous punishment, appears in Court; is he to be allowed to exercise the privilege of an Attorney; and has the Court "no power to make, or jurisdiction to enforce," a rule to show cause why he shall not be disabled from appearing before it?"

Judge Tourgee has recently admitted to the Bar, one, if not two disreputable men. We allude to Stephens, Senator from Caswell, whose name appeared on the Rockingham criminal docket, charged with larceny in stealing chickens. It is well known that he left Crenshaw's boarding house in the City of Richmond, not only before breakfast, but before day, to avoid the payment of his bill. These were acts of infamy before his admission to the Bar. Since his admission, if his brother members will take the trouble to inquire, they can find in his official conduct as a Magistrate, sufficient cause even for Judge Tourgee to silence him as a member of the Bar.

In our recent visit to Caswell we heard that Anderson Graves, (colored,) was indicted for stealing a hog; when he retained Kerr and Winston to appear for him. He stated that 'Mr. Stephens had axed him to let him (Stephens) appear for him," but he told Mr. Stephens, "no it would never do, if you and the chickens and me and the hog gets before the jury, we will both go down."

The other unworthy member of the Caswell Bar is one Leonard, a stranger. He recently sent a petition to Governor Holden, full of taschoods as to the character of a fellow, now undergoing the punishment of the law. To this petition Leonard signed himself ——"Leonard, LL. D.

In the late contempt case, the Supreme Court say, they, the "Courts have jurisdiction over the morals and behavior" of the Bar. The Bar of North Carolina has hitherto commanded the respect and confidence of the public, as much so as the Bench.—Until recently, there was veneration for the judiciary, and the highest respect and admiration for the Bar. Now there is no veneration for the one and greatly diminished respect for the other.

Let the Caswell Bar be no longer unmindful of what is due to itself. The purity and integrity of the Bar is only second in importance to the purity and integrity of the Bench.

JOHN LAWSON INTERVIEWED.

General Grant was interviewed by the Herald's Reporter,

Holden was interviewed on Wednesday, last to interview John Lawson, an intelligent colored man of Yanceyville, who had become disgusted with Governor Holden and the Leagues, and we might learn something which the public should know. Accordingly, we sought an interview with John in the brick store, which is next hard by where the old Hotel was burnt. John said, that in the late campaign Stephens, the Senator and member of the Caswell Bar, received money from all the candidates for Congress; $30 from "Hon." Windy Billy Henderson, $150 from Mr. Lash, the member of Congress, and $100 from Judge Tourgee. The Judge paid by two several instalments, to-wit: $25 in cash and a slow note for $75.

Judge Tourgee sent Hood, colored member of the Convention, from Cumberland, to canvass for him and Stephens; Stephens being a candidate for the Senate and Tourgee for Congress, at the same time he was riding the circuit as a Judge. Hood boarded with John Lawson during the canvass. Judge Tourgee promised to pay Hood's bill and expenses. This he afterwards refused to do. John Lawson wrote him repeatedly on the subject, but the Judge was silent and made no answer. When he came to Caswell Court, after the canvass, John faced him for the payment of Hood's bill. The Judge left Court without paying it. He told John Lawson they were not standing up as they should about Yanceyville—that Hood should not be charged, and that the money to pay him should be made up among them. John wrote the Judge, threatening to sue, if Hood's bill was not paid. No answer from the Judge.—Again John writes and no reply.

John Lawson and his wife went to Raleigh during the session of the Legislature; John interviewed the Judge, who was also in the City as a Code Commissioner, on the subject of Hood's bill. The Judge asked what he meant, by his letter threatening to sue? "don't you know you could get nothing out of me by law?" "John Lawson" said the Judge, "you should not look to me for the ball." "Judge" said John Lawson, "I never would have done so, if you had not told me." John then took counsel of the "Hon." Windy Billy Henderson, who was lately acquitted by a Jury, of stealing Dan's mule. Billy told him to sue the Judge, in Greensboro and not in Raleigh. "Tut," said John "we was after the fight between Mr. Henderson and the Judge." "I don't think Mr. Turner, he would have given me the advice before the fight." Judge Tourgee offered to pay the Hood bill, if John would take an order on Senator Stephens. "No" said John, "Mr. Stephens owes me for work and won't pay." "So I know he won't pay your order," John was advised to "get writing from Judge Tourgee." The Judge accordingly wrote: "Mr. Stephens will please pay John Lawson $14,50 and I will credit your note with $20." Finally after threats and threatening letters, the Judge told John Lawson to come to his room at 10 o'clock that night and he would pay the bill. John went, but no Judge there. John then borrowed money of Senator Stephens to take the train, and Stephens was to go to the Judge, who would pay it. Cary the "archives of gravity" and member of the House, comes to the rescue of the Judge. Cary said he would pay it. John said he would have it from none but Judge Tourgee, who had promised to pay it.

After John had borrowed the amount of Hood's bill from Senator Stephens, and told him to call on Judge Tourgee for the re payment, John instructed Cary, the archives of gravity, to call on Judge Tourgee before Stephens could see him and get the money promised at 10 o'clock, the night before. Cary saw the Judge before Stephens did—collected the money for Hood's bill and paid it to John Lawson's wife.

Here the interview in the brick store ended, but was resumed on the road to Danville in the presence of Keho, the Commissioner in Bankruptcy for the Guilford district, and the above story reiterated.

A YOUTHFUL CLERK.—Among the proceedings which took place in the Senate chamber of the Virginia Legislature on Tuesday the Richmond Whig records the following:

"While the roll was being called, Col. Walter H. Taylor, of Norfolk, (the adjutant of General R. E. Lee during the war,) stated that his name was not on it, and proceeded to explain why it was not there. On finding, yesterday, that he was one of the seven Senators whose certificates had been retained by General Canby, he went to headquarters this morning, and on asking General Canby why this was the case, that officer replied that he had been informed that he was a clerk of the Circuit Court in the year 1844. He told General Canby that he was then only six years old, and convinced him that he labored under no disability that would prevent him from taking his seat as Senator from Norfolk.—General Canby thereupon said he would have his certificate forwarded to the Secretary of the commonwealth. This had not been yet done, and he was consequently unable to qualify as required."

NEW YORK, Oct. 6.—An evening paper has the following: "A terrible earthquake occurred in Peru, August 24. The Pacific Steam Navigation Company's steamer Payta was damaged. The earthquake was so severe as to throw down passengers on the steamer. It lifted a heavy iron safe in the purser's room, and raised the vessel entirely out of the water. The shock was not repeated; had it been, the vessel would undoubtedly have been lost. The peaks of the mountain on shore were seen to tumble down and crumble away. The inhabitants of Callao and other places along the Pacific coast were fleeing into the interior and all valuable products being removed."

The Public Printer has issued a circular to the employees of the Government printing office, to the effect that he will not be controlled in any respect by the Typographical Union. The paper was called out by a demand of the Union that copyholders should be printers.

A Western steamboat captain, importuned by a life insurance solicitor, settled matters by remarking: "Look here, my friend, I never bet on any game where I've got to die to beat it."

For the Sentinel.

To the Editor of the Sentinel:

SIR—After reading the card of Dr. J. J. Mott, it is with fear and trembling that we sent ourself with the intention of making a few broken remarks" on the Ring and the W. & C. R. R., for we are led to suppose that the safety of our life or, at least, the integrity of our body depends solely upon the Doctor's definition of the word "respectability." He says: "On my return I shall endeavor to find out who "James" is, and if he is a respectable man I shall take further notice of him." Now, as I expect to speak of the same subject as "James" did, I cannot expect anything else than to share his fate. But we are not without hope that we will not come up to the Doctor's idea of repectability. For instance, we have never been a member of the Legislature of North Carolina, elected under the Constitution, and, consequently, have never had the honor of sitting beside the Senator from New Hanover or any other negro.

We have never taken the test oath, and, of course, have never been a Revenue officer to oppress the people and cheat the government.

We have never belonged to the Union League and claimed fellowship with negroes.

We have never had private interviews with, nor walked arm and arm with Gen. W. Swepson, Gen. Littlefield, or any other ringmaster.

We have never acted the part of the educated dog, horse, hog or monkey, at the crack of the ringmaster's whip in the great N. C. Railroad circus, Gen. W. Swepson, Gen. Littlefield, & Co., proprietors and ringmasters. Nor have we ever performed in any of the side shows.

We have never acted the part of the man who throws off so many coats and finally comes out in his true dress, but we think we saw a young man from your town, up here, at the Railroad meeting, who would perform that part without special rehearsal.

Furthermore, we have never written letters exculpating any of the ringmasters, and we will stick to our friends to the last; we will be with them in the hour of prosperity, and go down with them in adversity, and when we cease to do so, we want the Doctor to order out the league and massacre us on the spot.

Lastly, we did not vote for the Doctor at the last Railroad meeting.

After all this confession we feel better, and we can't believe that the Doctor will think that we are sufficiently respectable to be found out and "taken notice of," if he does, however, we will make a suggestion to him. If he prides himself, as much now, as he did in his younger days, on his pugilistic power, let him challenge John Morrisey, champion of America, white in New York, and if victory perches on his banner, he will make more reputation though less money, than he ever can vaulting in a side show of the big circus. The Doctor says most emphatically, that none of the funds of the Road were used for purposes of bribery or corruption, but if we are not mistaken, he says nothing about threats made to John Malone which "James" mentions, and when threats we have very good reason to believe, were made, nor does he say anything about that poor house allowance or orphan fund for the ten fit of that opulent pauper, John A. Hunt.

Now there are more ways of bribery than directly offering money to a man. If you wish to bribe a child into good behavior, you don't always say "I'll give you an apple if you will behave," but sometimes, if you will behave I will take you down to the orchard where you can get oodles of apples." Now I don't accuse any single stockholder of being bribed, but it is well known that all these rings work into each other's hands, and it is a singular coincidence, that all Swepson's new contractors on the Western Division, voted for Dr. Mott and his seven brother Radical Directors, whilst no man who was opposed to Dr. Mott's administration could get a contract on that Road, although, I know in many instances they underbid those who did get them. So you are right Mr. Editor, neither Dr. Mott's card nor Colonel Tate's letter is satisfactory to the people interested in the W. N. C. Railroad. They write as if they thought we poor people here, that dont belong to rings and haven't got any money to go to New York, ought not to meddle in railroad matters, with which we have nothing whatever to do but to pay the tax to build them.

"As paupers gathering in congenial flocks, Bobbin of banks, insurances and stocks."

The writer of this has always had the highest regard for Col. Tate, and he does not now believe that he would be guilty of any dishonest dealings whatever, far from it, but he claims the right to question the consistency of Col. Tate's course at the last Rail Road meeting as well as any one else, and we think the indignant strain, which pervades his letter, unwarranted by the allusions to him by "Nobody," and we have heard several of his heretofore warmest friends say, they wanted to see him called on to explain his position, for he has himself acknowledged he was placed in a false position by his election, we say by his acceptance of a directorship, when his old friends were defeated.

The Col. does not speak as if there was any other alternative but defeat after the desertion of the greenback stock, but if he had wished to defeat the radicals, was there no way left? Has he forgotten the means used to bring them to terms at the last annual meeting. Did not a gentleman present say, there was but one way of defeating them, but that he felt a delicacy in making the proposition, that was, by keeping out of the meeting. Was not Col. Tate among the first to give in his stock and the meeting was organized.

Mr. Editor there are some strange things these days; we saw, in the Salisbury Examiner, a few weeks ago something that surprised us, the writer seemed indignant that the Editor of the SENTINEL, should venture a doubt as to the political soundness of Messrs. R. Caldwell, Woodfin and Simonton. Now we do not wish to furnish the pretext of persecution to any who may be toppling on the fence, but we would like to know of Mr. Richard Caldwell, for we presume the paragraph was inserted at his behest, if he did not vote for Dr. Mott, Daddy Cowles, Jake B wman and all the rest of the Radical crew? And we would like to know if he did all that for the good of the road and if there were no Conservatives fit for the position. We should like to put the same question to Mr. Woodfin and Mr. Simonton; and we say to these gentlemen, if you will sail, show your true colors, don't sail under chameleon flags and mislead those who may follow you. The Radicals boast of this as one of their greatest triumphs, beating Vance, Merrimon and McDowell. They claim you; it is natural they should. But the subject is too prolific, so no more at present.

EXTRAORDINARY SHIPMENT OF PETROLEUM.—Within the past week six vessels have cleared from this port to Sweden, (one of the principal ports on the Black Sea) taking in the aggregate 13,707 barrels of petroleum. This is the largest weekly shipment from this port ever before known, the usual number of departures averaging two vessels a month, and is regarded by the trade as a remarkable occurrence, especially when the press is stagnation in the market and the difficulty in negotiating foreign exchange is considered.—New York Times.

GLASS SPECTACLES,

Superior to any other in use—constructed in accordance with the science and philosophy of nature, in the peculiar form of

A CONCAVE CONVEX ELLIPSIS,

Admirably adapted to the organs of sight, and perfectly natural to the eye, affording altogether the best artificial help to the human vision ever invented. Used only by

MORRIS BERNHARDT,

SPECTACLE & OPTICAL MANUFACTURER.

THE ADVANTAGES of these Spectacles over all others are:

1. They can be worn with perfect ease for any length of time at one sitting, giving astonishing clearness of vision, by candle or any other artificial light, comfort to the spectacle-wearer hitherto unknown.

2. How to select Glasses. It requires professional guidance even when a good article is offered. Dr. Bernhardt not only has the best Glasses that can be found in the market, but carefully examines the eyes of his patients, and gives indispensable advice as to the proper selection of them.

3. When the eyes ache or pain through the action of a bright light, such as is reflected from the snow, sunny weather, white paper, and in reading, writing or sewing, or vivid colored bodies; these lenses, by softening the rays effect a most agreeable sensation and give great relief.

4. These spectacles are scientifically adjusted to every case of defective sight with unerring accuracy, whether arising from age, strain, over work, or premature decay, by Dr Bernhardt on a new and exact principle, entirely his own, which has seldom failed to be correct.

5. After several years of public practice adjusting spectacles to patients under every aspect of defective vision, as well as experience in an extensive, long established business in his Optical Stores, both here and in Europe, Dr. Bernhardt considers it a sufficient guarantee of his ability to supply such glasses as are best calculated for the assistance of imperfect sight.

6. M. Bernhardt, to signalize himself from the host of pretenders in his profession, with pride submits for inspection, copies of testimonials he has received from medical gentlemen of the most unquestionable respectability and talent in America; also a number of certificates from well known gentlemen of distinction who have used his spectacles—the originals of all which he will be happy to show to those who may request it. The use of any of the following names or certificates hereunto affixed, without an actual possession of the same, would be a forgery, a capital offence, punishable by State imprisonment.

Testimony of Recommendations from Medical Gentlemen, Professors of the highest Opthalmic talent in Raleigh, N. C., and in the Union

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

I have carefully examined Prof. Bernhardt's Spectacles, and take great pleasure in recommending him to those who, having defective vision, can be made to see more clearly and distinctly by the use of glasses. He has wonderful skill in this respect. The pair he has supplied me with are of Brazilian Pebble, of most superior quality and excellent finish. They enable me to see how to read or write, at the ordinary focal distance, as clearly and distinctly as I did twenty years ago. I very cheerfully bear testimony both to the Professor's skill and to the wonderful properties of his glasses.

CHAS. E. JOHNSON, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug. 24, 1869.

I take great pleasure in saying that the Glasses I have obtained (and am now using) from Dr. M. Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously used; my own experience fully sustaining the testimonials of excellence and commendation which he has received from gentlemen of science, and high character, in various parts of our country.

WM. G. HILL, M. D.

Raleigh, N. C., Aug 24, 1869.

I take pleasure in stating that I have examined the glasses of M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, and think they are of the best material, and constructed on scientific principles. I would advise those in need of glasses to call on him.

Very respectfully

F. J. HAYWOOD, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug. 24, 1869.

Doctor Bernhardt called at my house and exhibited to me his fine assortment of Australian Crystal Glasses, which are of a very superior quality and workmanship. I take pleasure in saying that the glasses I have obtained from Professor Bernhardt are to me a source of greater comfort than any I have previously worn and cheerfully commend them to those who may be in need of glasses.

W. H. McKEE, M. D.

Raleigh, Aug 25, 1869.

After an attentive examination of the various glasses in the possession of Dr. M. Bernhardt, accompanied with his explanation of his mode of preparing and adjusting them, it is with great pleasure I state my belief of his great skill, and of the benefit which those needing glasses must derive from his assistance.

R. S. MASON, D. D.,
Pastor Prot. Episcopal Church.

Raleigh, Aug. 25, 1869.

Dr. M. Bernhardt, Oculist and Optician, has fitted me with a pair of spectacles superior to any article of the kind I ever had before. The material is Australian Crystal, the quality of which renders vision very clear and distinct, and enables me to read and write with as much ease as I did ten or twelve years ago. His assortment of glasses is very complete and the finish apparently perfect. I take great pleasure in recommending him to all who need their sight improved.

DRURY LACY, D. D.,
Late Pres't. of Davidson College, N. C.

Raleigh, Aug. 26, 1869

It gives me pleasure to bear witness to the extraordinary value and excellence of the glasses prepared and furnished by Prof. Bernhardt. To those who need artificial aid for their vision he will be of the highest service.

J. M. ATKINSON,
Pastor of the Presbyterian Church.

State of North Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Raleigh, March 28, 1868.

I have examined a large number of the glasses of Prof. M. Bernhardt, and with pleasure certify to their superior excellence. I wear a pair of them and see as perfectly as I could in my youth. They are the best I ever used, and I therefore heartily recommend him to the patronage of the public.

JONATHAN WORTH,
Governor of North Carolina.

State of South Carolina,
EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT,
Columbia, June 19th, 1868.

Sir: I have made a full and satisfactory test of the spectacles procured from you, and I have the pleasure to say that the glasses are better adapted to my eyes than any I have ever used. The facility with which you fitted the glasses to my eyes, furnished me conclusive evidence of your scientific skill in optics and your thorough experience as an Oculist.

Your attainments in your profession entitle you to the confidence, patronage and gratitude of the public. I have the honor to be,

Very respectfully yours,
JAMES L. ORR,
Governor of South Carolina.

Prof. MORRIS BERNHARDT, Charleston, S. C.

Wilmington, March 31, 1866.

I have examined a number of Professor Bernhardt's Glasses and am now using a pair of them, and take pleasure in testifying that they enable me to see better than any others that I have used, while in his collection there seem to be some adapted to remedy any kind of defect in vision.

THOMAS ATKINSON,
Bishop of North Carolina.

Nashville, April 27, 1867.

The difference between Dr Bernhardt and most Opticians is, according to my observation, that while they pretend to more than they know, he knows more of his business than he professes.

W. K. BOWLING, M. D.

Testimonials similar to the above may be seen at Dr. Bernhardt's office, from the most reliable and well-known gentlemen of the United States, among whom are:

LATER.

We have received the following special dispatch, from Charlotte:

CHARLOTTE, Oct. 8.—Jones' majority is 183, a gain of 43 on the Seymour vote.

STATE FAIR—POULTRY.—We learn that there will be a good exhibition of poultry at the State Fair. Notice has already been given of some very handsome black Spanish chickens, best Nash County game, Aylesbury ducks, Bramah Pootra fowls, &c., &c. It is to be regretted that it is moulting season as all fowls have now their ugliest look. Of course the Judges will take this into consideration, in making their awards.

Some very fine specimens of pottery have been entered for exhibition. Mr. Lemuel Morgan, of Wake County, is the exhibitor and manufacturer.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society, held Friday Oct. 8th, it was resolved to offer the following premiums, to wit: for the best printing, book, job, or Newspaper, each variety five dollars; for the best book binding, five dollars; for the best paper, letter, book, news and wrapping, on each variety five dollars. Exchanges please copy.

"THE BLAIR HOUSE."—These are the words painted on the sides of the sure-enough Omnibus that rolled out from N. S. Harp's Coach establishment, yesterday afternoon, drawn by three spans of elegant horses, to run, at present, between the Yarborough House and the Depot. When the new Blair House shall have been completed for the reception of guests, this commodious vehicle will run from that house also.

The Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society have resolved to rent the fence near the entrance gates to those who desire to Advertise during the Fair. For particulars, apply to the Secretary at the office of the Society.

PEPPER'S RESTAURANT.—This establishment is being fitted up in fine style for the convenience and comfort of its customers. But the work of repairing does not check the flow of good things, while it is going on; but fresh oysters, fish, game, and the inimitable "sora" from the James River bottoms, are furnished to those who may call for them, and also "something hot" to wash them down with.

THE LOUISIANA EQUITABLE LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF NEW ORLEANS.—This is one of the very best companies in the country. It has the endorsement of Bishop Wilmer, Genl. Beauregard, Hood, Harry Hays and the leading men of New Orleans. General Beauregard says: "Its Officers and Directors have been selected from our most reliable and intelligent citizens.

Instead of sending $40,000,000 annually North, our citizens can find better companies at home.

There will be an election held at the different precincts in the several townships of Davie County, on Thursday, November 11th 1869, for the purpose of voting on the proposition of the commissioners to subscribe $50,000 to the Western R. R., provided said road is located at Salisbury.

A new line of sailing vessels has commenced running between Newbern and New York.

Mr. W. W. Dunn's gin house in Lenoir county, was recently broken into and robbed of about 300 pounds of Cotton.

On last Monday a negro man, named General King, was driving a mule near the depot at Tarboro, having in his cart a barrel of meal when the animal took fright and threw him out, the barrel falling upon him, causing death in a few moments.

The fisheries in the vicinity of Beaufort, are doing remarkably well.

HUMORS OF THE COURTS.—We have heard the following anecdote from one who witnessed the scene:

In one of the Superior Courts of this State, a negro was on trial for stealing Railroad spikes, with an almost certainty of conviction; when, as a dernier resort, his counsel raised the point that "the spikes said to have been stolen, was a part of the realty, and, consequently, was not the subject of a larceny, the crime charged in the bill of indictment." On this the "loll" Solicitor of the District replied, "May it please your Honor, and gentlemen of the Jury, the idea that these here spikes is a part of the reality, is ridiculous! If they had tin a part of the reality, do you think that one little bag could ha' hilt em?"

Somebody at our elbow says, the first letter of the Solicitor's name is, John V. Sherrard, of the third Judicial circuit; but we do not vouch for this.

POLICE APPOINTED.—We learn that the Executive Committee of the Agricultural Society has appointed Mr. W. C. Parker, as Captain of the Police for the Fair Grounds, with power to appoint twelve policemen for the purpose of keeping order during the Fair. We would respectfully suggest that, as there will doubtless be a good many colored people, as well as whites, in the city during the Fair, that Mr. Parker appoint one-half of his allotted force of steady colored men, who might render him efficient aid, with less likelihood of resistance from that class of persons.

COME DOWN, EVANS.—We want Evans, of the Milton Chronicle, to come down to the State Fair. We will guarantee him good accommodations, and promise to keep him free or save him harmless from any attacks that may be made upon his morals, while in the city. So come on, Evans, and don't be afraid of Pike; we'll see you through.

In this connection we will say that we hope to have the pleasure of seeing every editor in the State in Raleigh, on that occasion. We expect to be pretty busy about that time, but will show them all the attention we can, and give them the run of our sanctum.

MIND YOUR EYE.—We are requested by Dr. M. Bernhardt to say that he will visit Henderson next week, where he will remain during the Fair, and may be found at Kittrell's Hotel, where he will be pleased to see those who may desire his services for weak or imperfect sight.

Dr. Bernhardt has been several weeks in Raleigh, during which time he has furnished a large number of persons with his Brazilian pebble and Australian crystal glasses, and in no instance that we have heard of, has he failed to give satisfaction; on the contrary, those who have obtained glasses from him express themselves as highly gratified.

Dr. Bernhardt may be found at the Yarborough House to-day.

[BY REQUEST.]

TO PERSONS NEEDING SERVANTS.—As several of the first families in and about Raleigh have requested the Father McNamara to interest himself in procuring Catholic servants to fill various positions in their households, he has consented to take steps for this purpose as soon as a certain number of applicants shall present themselves. All therefore who are desirous of securing Catholic cooks, nurses, chamber-maids, &c., &c., would do well to give Father McNamara their names and state the quality of servants required and the wages they are willing to allow.

OYSTERS DELIVERED TO ORDER.—Henry Smith, Messenger of the Telegraph Office, informs us that he will receive fresh oysters by the train every evening, and will deliver them in quantities to suit, to families who may leave orders at the Express Office. We bespeak for Henry a share of patronage in this line.

The ladies of Henderson, will give a series of beautiful tableaux and charades on Thursday of the Fair.

On Thursday last, John Moosingham, an employee of the W. & W. R. R, was run over and instantly killed at Rocky Mount by a freight train.

The Milton Chronicle thinks that Jack Frost, is bound to fall heir to nearly one half of the new tobacco crop, in Caswell and the adjacent counties.

The 27th of November next, is fixed as the day for holding the Convention at Camden, S. C., for the consideration of the Charlotte and Lancaster R. R.

A few days ago, a colored man near Yanceyville, while fallowing land, stopped his plow to molest a hornet's nest—one of the enraged insects made at him and stung him in the temple, probably penetrating an artery. The poor fellow gave up the attack and laid himself down in the corner of a fence and in an half hour he was a dead man. The Milton Chronicle is responsible for the above statement.

VIRGINIA STATE FAIR.—We acknowledge the courtesy of a complimentary ticket to the Fair of the Virginia State Agricultural Society, to be held on the 2nd, 3rd, 4th and 5th days of November next.

A Frenchman tells a good story before the St. Louis courts. In April last he shipped as a deck hand on a Missouri steamboat bound for the Rocky Mountains, but as he did his work bunglingly the mate kicked and beat him, knocked his teeth out, and at last put him ashore on a sand-bar, without food. There the Indians found him and carried him off to their camp, where they stripped him of clothing, tied his hands together, and hung him over a slow fire. Before he was quite done a nice young squaw cut him down and gave him an apron, in which attire he escaped, made his way to St. Louis, and now sues for $196 wages from the steamboat owners.

Madame Pochaud, a wealthy lady of Paris, France, was recently sent to prison for six months, all for the simple amusement of now and then stealing a small sum of money, a species of pleasantry to which she seems very much addicted.

In speaking of a destructive freshet, which recently visited that section, the Milton Chronicle says:

"The stream here known as Countyline was as high as we ever saw it, not to me the result of backwater from the river—it rose within two feet of the bridge floor, and swept like chaff the upper and lower buttments. At this writing crossing the bridge in vehicles or horseback is impossible, on account of the damages the buttments received. That portion of the buttment which Col. Traver the bridge builder erected, like the bridge, stands firm as a rock, but the balance is literally used up. The water in the creek spreads over the low grounds for miles up the mill pond, submerging nearly all the corn and tobacco in the bottoms.—We hear that it covers about 400 barrels of corn for Mr. John L. Irvine, residing up the creek.

Dan River is booming, and though not as high as we have seen it, it is sufficiently high to destroy much of the corn and tobacco in the low grounds. This freshet, following an unexampled drouth, is truly discouraging to the farmer and makes the question of bread one of the most vital importance. We have no idea, at this writing, of the extent of the damages—we trust that they are much less on the River than the rise in Countyline creek prognosticates. Fortunately, we have an abundance of wheat and a good chance of old corn."

THE UTLEY

COTTON PRESS.

A NEW combination of power, whereby all friction is overcome. The simplicity, economy and durability of this PRESS astonishes all who see it, and the more so that a power so simple should so long have been unappropriated. With this Press, two men can do all the packing or pressing of a 500 pound bale inside of eight minutes: and it can be readily taken down and transported, as it is simple and light. We can supply these Presses cheaper than any yet offered to the Planter. Will send circulars to any desiring, and we would advise all persons wanting presses to withhold buying until they examine this.

THE PRESSES are now being manufactured at the MASH AND BLAND FACTORY OF THOS. H. BRIGGS. All are assured that as between this and any other there is no argument as to the merits over all others. With the irons, any ordinary workman can put them up. The patentee is here for a few days, and will take pleasure in explaining its merits.

Its ratio of Mortality is low. Its rates are very low. Its expenses are very low. Its dividends are large.

It insured more lives in the City of New York in 1868 than any other Company, except one. It insured more Policies in the United States than any other save one. It insured more lives in Canada than any other Company, British or American.

See what the HIGHEST INSURANCE AUTHORITY in this country says. In the June number of the Insurance Times, of New York, the following opinion was expressed:

"If there is any great benefit in mutual association, any great advantage to be derived from scientific organization and a chartered source, tending to mitigate the sufferings, lessen the privations, and add to the peace, security, and happiness of humanity, we are prepared to show that these blessings flow, in all their fullness and purity, from this excellent, powerful, and flourishing Company, the ÆTNA LIFE, of Hartford."

"No institution has brought more prompt, full, and grateful relief to the hearths of the bereaved and desolate, and none has been more uniformly distinguished for the enterprise, wisdom, and equitable liberality with which it has fulfilled the purposes of its formation."

"Its success has been almost unbounded and beyond all precedent. Eight years ago, in 1861, it issued only 288 policies, received an income of seventy-eight thousand dollars, and possessed net assets amounting up to something over two hundred and eighty-one thousand dollars; but last year, 1868, it granted 13,287 new policies, more than any other Company except the Mutual Life; received an income exceeding six million dollars, and had amassed solid, securely and profitably invested nett assets amounting to over Ten Million Three Hundred and Fifty Thousand Dollars. And this wonderful ratio of growth has been sustained in 1869."

SCHOOL BOOKS.

UNIFORM SYSTEM OF
TEXT-BOOKS

PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL PRIMER.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL SPELLERS.
PARKER & WATSON'S NATIONAL READERS.
DAVIES' ARITHMETICS.
MONTEITH & McNALLY'S GEOGRAPHIES.
MONTEITH'S YOUTH'S HISTORY OF THE U. S.
REED'S SYSTEM OF PENMANSHIP.

THE NEW DESCRIPTIVE GEOGRAPHY OF NORTH CAROLINA will be ready about the middle of October, prox. The maps, &c., are now being engraved as rapidly as possible. This work will be furnished with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

PROF. JEROME ALLEN'S COMPLETE SYSTEM OF MAP DRAWING will also be furnished to the Public Schools with Monteith & McNally's Series, without extra charge.

The books will be supplied at exceedingly low rates to the Public Schools in the state.

Similar terms will be made accessible to private schools adopting the above named books uniformly.

Pupils attending the Public Schools will, in accordance with the State contract, be furnished with new copies of Monteith & McNally's Geographies and Davies' Arithmetics in exchange for old copies of Cornell's Geographies and Quackenbos' Arithmetics, which they may possess.

Books will be supplied, carefully packed and shipped, by ALFRED WILLIAMS,
Depositary, Raleigh, N. C.

Teachers and Educators generally are respectfully invited to correspond with
C. W. LAMBETH,
Agent for the Publishers
and sup't of Introduction.

From Dr. WM. B. HARRELL, Prin. High School, Snow Hill, N. C.:
SNOW HILL, N. C.
"I am much pleased with both the Spellers and all the Readers; and as to the series of Geographies by Monteith & McNally, I have long used no others when these could be obtained.

From Rev. ALBERT SMEDES, D. D., Rector of St Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C.
RALEIGH, N. C.
I have examined the Geographies—Monteith's [No. 4] and McNally's [No. 5] and find excellencies in both, which eminently entitle them to a wide circulation. It is my purpose to introduce Monteith's [No. 4] into my school. I give it the preference for the information which it gives on the subject of Physical Geography. The maps and questions in both works seem to me to be admirable.
ALBERT SMEDES.

From J. W. GULICK, A. M., Prin. Male Academy, Goldsboro', N. C.:
GOLDSBORO', N. C.
I find your books are in use in many Schools in this section. The teachers speak in the highest terms of your Readers and Geographies, and of Peck's Ganot in particular.
J. W. GULICK.

From Col. WM. BINGHAM, Prin. Bingham School, N. C.
"The introduction of so much valuable matter on the subjects of Physical Geography and Geology and in a form so simple and intelligible, makes it (Monteith's Intermediate Geography) in my judgment, a charming school book.
"We shall introduce Davies' Boardon, perhaps others of your books."

From Dr. CROSS, Prin. Durham Academy, N. C.:
DURHAM, N. C.
I design introducing the present session McNally's Geography and Davies' University Arithmetic; also Boyd's Elements of English Composition.
M. CROSS.

From M. L. LITTLE, Esq., Prin. Pleasant Hill Seminary, Newton, N. C.
NEWTON, N. C.
Will introduce the University Arithmetic next term. Have examined it with much satisfaction. An admirable work.
M. L. LITTLE,
Prin Pleasant Hill Seminary.

From Rev. S. IVEY, Prin Asburn Academy, N. C.:
ASBURN, N. C.
Monteith's Geographies are excellent works, and I shall introduce them into my school.
STINCEON IVEY.

Prof. WM. A. OBENCHAIN, writing from Hillsboro' Military Academy, says:
The superior and durable style of binding of your works is a very great recommendation—one with which I have long been favorably impressed.

From J. E. DUGGER, Esq., Prin. Male Academy, Warrenton, N. C.
WARRENTON, N. C.
"Davies' Mathematics" was adopted by me in 1858, and, up to this time, I have examined no works superior to them as a whole.
I have examined, with a view of introduction, "McNally's Geography" [No. 5] and "Peck's Ganot's Natural Philosophy." I consider them most excellent works, and shall put them in my boys' hands, at the earliest period. The Philosophy is truly an enticing work and must meet with universal commendation.
J. E. DUGGER.

From W. C. KERR, State Geologist of N. C.
I regard Monteith's Physical and Intermediate Geography as one of the best books of its kind. It has several points of superiority over most primary Geographies; not the least of which, especially in the eyes of the juveniles, will be found in its attractive and very graphic illustrations. Another is the truly wonderful amount of substantial and really scientific information conveyed by these wood cuts, and the concise and lucid descriptions appended. But the chief excellence consists in this, that Geography is here treated from the only true and rational standpoint, viz: of Geology and Physical Geography; so that the learner arrives, by a natural and easy process, at the true conception of the earth as an organized whole; the designed result of successive changes and modifications, under the control of physical laws, constituting a true growth from a chaotic germ through manifold stages of progress, all pointing forward to its destined end as the home of living beings, and finally of man.

From Rev. G. D. BERNHEIM, Principal of Mount Amoena Female Seminary, Mount Pleasant, N. C.
MT. PLEASANT, N. C.
I have introduced your National Series of Readers with great satisfaction to myself and to our teachers. We find them to be excellent, just suited to our purpose.
With Davies' Mathematical Series we have been long familiar, and can find no good reason for changing them.
In the Primary Department we have Monteith's Geographies, and in the advanced classes we have introduced Peck's Ganot, with much acceptance.
G. D. BERNHEIM.

From Prof. JOS. H. FOY, President Stantonsburg Seminary High School, N. C.
WILSON, N. C.
I have carefully examined the claims of the different Series of School Books most prominent before the public at this time. I have tested the merits of many of them in the school and lecture room, and feel no hesitancy in pronouncing the National Series of Readers and Spellers" the best with which I am acquainted. I shall henceforth use no others in my school, and I shall furthermore use my influence to secure their adoption into other Seminaries in this section.
I use Davies' Mathematical Series in my school. I consider his works incomparably superior in many particulars, even to Stoddard's Course, which is saying a great deal. In fact, I consider it the highest encomium in my power to bestow.
I use Monteith's Series in my school. They afford a gradual but thorough and systematic progression, from the simplest rudiments of science, up to a development sufficiently extensive for all ordinary educational purposes. Their very superior merit has led me to discard ——, which stands next best on the list.
McNally's, the fifth book of the course, is decidedly the chef d'oeuvre of Geographies. No competent instructor can examine it for an hour without being struck with its extraordinary merit.
J. H. FOY

From the Statesville, N. C. American, February 20th, 1866.
We would call the attention of Teachers in Western North Carolina to the valuable School publications of this firm, which are equal to any in the Union.
Messrs. Barnes & Co., of New York, are now issuing large editions of these Standard School Books for the southern States. The series consists of the National Primer, or Word Builder. National Elementary Speller. The National First 2nd 3rd, 4th and 5th Readers. This firm will allow no competition in the price of books published by them, which are among the best in the States.
From the Raleigh Daily Progress, Feb 20, 1866.
NATIONAL SECOND READER.—We have never examined a volume of its class which we could commend more cordially to parents and teachers.
From the N. C. Presbyterian, March 7, 1866.
NATIONAL FIRST READER.—We recommend it to all who desire a valuable book of instruction for beginners.
From the Wilmington, N. C. Daily Herald, 1866.
The National Series has attained probably a higher reputation than any other complete series of School Books now in existence.

UPWARD AND ONWARD!!

WHY IS IT BEST TO INSURE IN THE BROOKLYN LIFE?
BECAUSE,
AMONG OTHER REASONS, IT IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN THE UNITED STATES WHICH PRESENTS THE GREAT FEATURE OF GUARANTEEING DEFINITE
CASH SURRENDER VALUES,
IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.
ALL POLICIES
Are non-forfeitable after two full Annual Premiums have been paid.

The policy-holders of this Company may travel or reside where they choose—anywhere on the Globe.

The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company.

DIVIDENDS ARE PAID IN CASH,

or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.
